

Anne Farrell Ford

Anne Farrell Ford died Oct. 9, 1998, at Boulder Park Terrace in Charlevoix.

Memorial service will be 11 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 14, at the First Presbyterian Church in Petoskey. The Rev. Robert Lueck will officiate. Interment will be in Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

Ann Farrell Ford was born Nov. 23, 1910, at Mount Bliss near East Jordan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry John Farrell of East Jordan.

On Oct. 7, 1942, she married John Daniel Ford of New York City, a World War II U.S. Army captain, Bronze Star recipient and professional writer who preceded her in death in 1987.

Anne Ford

After graduation from Columbia University, Anne was a prominent designer of high quality wooden children's toys in New York City.

She and her husband also resided in Chicago and Detroit before retiring in Petoskey.

She was an active member of the board of directors of the Crooked Tree Arts Council, where her name was the first on an engraved silver cup as "Volunteer of the Year" for her work in organizing a docent program.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Crooked Tree Arts Council, 416 Mitchell St., Petoskey, Mich. 49770; or to the First Presbyterian Church of Petoskey, 517 E. Mitchell St., Petoskey, Mich. 49770.

Arrangements were handled by the Stone Funeral Home in Petoskey.